DETAILED ACTION

Upon further consideration, the indicated allowability of claims in the office action mailed on November 28, 2003 (Paper No. 13) is withdrawn. Accordingly, the finality of the office action is also withdrawn. The Examiner sincerely apologizes for any inconvenience caused to the Applicants.

Claim Objections

Claims 12 and 13 are objected to because of the following informalities. It appears that the Applicants are trying to further limit the "alignment portion" recited in claim 11. Accordingly, the word "further" should be inserted before "comprises" in the claims so that the claims are in proper dependent form. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Reiley (US 6,610,091).

Regarding claim 11, Reiley discloses a spinal prosthesis or spinal facet cap, i.e., "a protective cover to seal an end," 330 having a shim or "thin piece of material" portion 325 and an alignment portion, i.e., "portion used for adjusting the position of cap 330" having a boss or "knob-like projection" (315, 310) along an edge of the shim portion 325 for correction of scoliosis (Figures 4, col. 5, lines 65-67 and col. 6, lines 1-67).

With regard to the phrases "for correctingvertebra," "for inserting.....spine," and "for maintainingfacet joint," it has been held that the recitation that an element for performing a function is not a positive limitation but only requires the ability to so perform and does not constitute a limitation in any patentable sense. In re Hutchison, 69 USPQ 138.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 12-15 and 17-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 19-28 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
